Advisen - "Existing Cyber Risk Network Members"

February 27, 2015

Scott Godes of the Washington, D.C., office was quoted in Advisen's article, "Existing Cyber Risk Network Members," which was published on Feb. 27. Scott told Advisen, "if you're going to sell a policy to a company, you want to give them true peace of mind. Policies should be sufficiently elastic to encompass this changing landscape, rather than trying to narrowly tailor what you'll offer based on what you've seen in the past few years."
