Covid-19 has increased certain wage and hour and employment law risks. Join the Wage and Hour practice group in a review of compliance pitfalls and challenges. In the first webinar of a series, our team will address:

- The wage and hour risks caused by Covid 19-related business changes and how to try to avoid them
- Pay practices that challenge employers even in the best of times
- Current wage and hour class and collective action litigation trends and potential areas of exposure in the age of COVID-19

The webinar will feature an extended Q&A session. You may ask questions during the Q&A or submit them when you register.

1.5 hour CLE credit pending. This program is valid for 1.5 PDCs for the SHRM-CP® or SHRM-SCP®
