

A savvy litigator, Alexandra French brings a winning combination of trial experience and a common-sense, efficient approach to advocacy. Alex comes from a long line of entrepreneurs and agribusiness owners, a background which helps her keep her clients' business needs top of mind throughout the dispute resolution process.

Alex is skilled in collaborating with clients throughout virtually all stages of contractual, product liability, toxic tort, and environmental litigation. She brings a keen intellect to resolving factual and legal issues and developing sound strategies.

Alex's connections to Indiana's agricultural community give her unique insight and sensitivity to the needs of her agribusiness clients in particular. She also has significant experience representing clients in the construction industry.

Before turning to private practice, Alex served as a judicial intern for the Honorable Paul D. Mathias of the Indiana Court of Appeals. She was also an intern with the U.S. Supreme Court, United Kingdom Parliament, the office of former Indiana Lt. Gov. Rebecca S. Skillman, and the Indiana State Department of Agriculture.
