

Mihran Yezbekyan is a passionate advocate, helping his clients navigate the often complex challenges that can arise in the course of litigation. His practice is focused in the areas of product liability and mass torts, consumer class actions, and multidistrict litigation (MDLs).

Mihran is experienced in virtually all aspects of traditional litigation and alternative dispute resolution, including written discovery, taking and defending depositions, drafting dispositive motions and arguing pretrial motions.

Hardworking and approachable, Mihran enjoys a challenge – which is ideal in his field – as he is constantly learning about different businesses, products and services in the course of assisting and defending clients.

Prior to joining the firm, Mihran worked in the Los Angeles office of a national law firm.

Mihran holds a certificate in dispute resolution from the Pepperdine Law Straus Institute for Dispute Resolution and mediated dozens of cases on behalf of the Los Angeles Superior Court through Pepperdine's Mediation Clinic during law school.
