I AM...

- Someone whose name confounds most people – it's pronounced "Tay-jus"
- Someone who has lived in India, South Africa, the UK, and the United States
- A sports lover whose interests range from running, tennis, basketball, baseball and football to cricket
- Someone who loves travel, including on my own. A trip to Cambodia and Myanmar is one of the highlights.
- A big believer in public service and activism – we have the power to help bend the arc of the moral universe toward justice
- A really good singer but a person who can't read sheet music
- The father of two children who strives to help them live their full heritage
- Somebody who is happiest with his friends and family
- Somebody who has more goals than he has time for
- A lifelong Blue Devil
