

Focusing her practice on complex commercial litigation, product liability, and mass tort matters, Veronica Kampfe is a diligent advocate for her clients.

Veronica is a reliable contributor at nearly every phase of litigation and regularly drafts motions, briefs and discovery in preparation for case filings, defends and takes depositions, and assists with state and federal trials and arbitrations.

Prior to joining the firm, Veronica practiced at an AmLaw 50 law firm as a member of the commercial disputes practice, where she assisted on national and international disputes and solidified her reputation as a team player.

Veronica also is passionate about her pro bono work, having assisted New Jersey citizens with expungement of their prior criminal records and secured asylum for a political refugee through her oral advocacy in federal immigration court.

During law school, Veronica worked as a judicial intern for the Honorable Judge Thomas M. Moore, Civil Presiding Judge of Essex County, and the Honorable Justice Walter F. Timpone of the New Jersey Supreme Court. She also gained experience as a legal intern at the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey, where she participated on investigations in the Opioid Abuse Prevention and Enforcement Unit.
