

Camyla Muniz leverages her knowledge and experience as a paralegal to inform her work as an immigration coordinator at Barnes & Thornburg.

Camyla assists attorneys and their clients with visa and other immigration application processes and procedures. She assists with client intake, case initiations, data management, reporting, writing, I-9 and compliance projects, and immigrant and non-immigrant petitions.

Highly organized and adaptive, Camyla regularly maintains and manages a range of business immigration case files.

Prior to joining the firm, Camyla spent five years as a paralegal at a boutique law firm gaining experience with family immigration matters. Camyla became well-versed in family petitions for adoption cases, which hold a special place in her heart.
