The International Trade Practice Group has partnered with Federal Publications Seminars to put on a two-part webinar series, "U.S. Export Controls on Dual-Use Goods: Primer and Hot Topics." David Spooner, Nick Galbraith and Kristen Krishnamurthy presented the first part, "Primer on Dual-Use Export Controls," to over 50 attendees. The webinar aimed to increase the ability to recognize Export Administration Regulations (EAR)controlled products and technology, recognize various potential licensing trigger points, and determine whether the export requires a license.
