

Karla Mora works alongside immigration attorneys and paralegals as an immigration specialist. With strong interpersonal and leadership skills, Karla is passionate about helping others and assisting companies as they navigate the ever-changing laws that govern immigration.

She has experience with immigrant and non-immigrant petitions with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) and she has processed over 500 petitions (H-1B, TN's, E's, AOS, and more.)

Prior to joining the firm, Karla served as an immigration paralegal at another Chicago-area law firm. During her career, Karla has served as the point of contact for refugees from across the world upon their arrival in the United States and has worked with immigrants living across the country on various consular protection matters.

Karla is passionate about and involved in giving back to the community and ways she can connect and learn from others.
