

Evaluating Cases Likely To Try: When & How To Do Mock Jury Work

DATE

March 10, 2016

SPEAKERS

John R. Maley
Partner

Only 1% of cases go to trial, but most that do have significant ramifications. For cases that go to jury, a mock jury can be critical in developing winning themes, testing key evidence, and selecting which witnesses are most important. Building mock juries and theme-testing into a case in its early stages can be critical, saving fees and enhancing prospects for success. Spend an hour with two of our partners with significant trial and mock jury experience:
