This corporate seminar is sponsored by the Japan Business Society of Detroit (JBSD) and the Japan External Trade Organization (JETRO). It will be conducted in both English and Japanese and offered free of charge.

Program Overview: The seminar will discuss the basics of U.S. antitrust compliance to train your salespeople before trade shows and industry association meetings on what they need to know to avoid any antitrust investigation. This seminar will also provide a basic understanding of antitrust compliance for your management and sales forces and introduce the current focus of the Japanese and U.S. governments' joint efforts to aggressively investigate violations. You will learn what types of activities may suppress competition.

Presenters include:

- Mari Yamamoto Regnier | Partner | Barnes & Thornburg
- Kendall Millard | Partner | Barnes & Thornburg

Registration: Contact the Japan Business Society of Detroit at 248-355-4899 or visit www.jbsd.org by March 19, 2013.
