

A highly motivated problem-solver, Cody Dolan is a paralegal assisting clients and attorneys in the firm's Corporate Department.

Cody is well-versed in music rights administration including copyright registrations, music publishing, and managing various forms of music agreements, including master use licenses, synchronization licenses, composer agreements and catalog representation agreements.

With over five years of combined experience in music licensing, contract management and legal assistance, Cody is an accomplished music licensing and administration director.

Moreover, Cody's background in project oversight and management gives them insight into effective processes and methods of resolution related to corporate matters.
