The average cost of turnover for an $8 per hour employee is $3,500. When you multiply that by your current workforce, the cost can be overwhelming.

Hear from our speakers about Goodwill's WeConnect program, which works with your employees to help address barriers that are keeping them from their full potential. The speakers also will explain how the nonprofit's Workplace Stability workshop can help lower your turnover costs, increase retention, and employee production. When you put the two together, your organization has
