

I AM BARNES & THORNBURG

SPOTLIGHTS

Audrey Gariepy-Bogui: I Am Barnes & Thornburg

February 1, 2021 | Washington, D.C.

I AM...

- A third-culture kid raised in different countries with parents originally from Cote D'Ivoire and Canada
- A thrill-seeker with no bounds – sky diving, bungee jumping, whitewater rafting – name it all
- A globe-trotter with a case of wanderlust that finds international travel enriching
- A former college track and field athlete recently inducted my high school's hall of fame and named Athlete of the Decade for Montgomery County, Maryland
- A native French-speaker who learned English at the age of 5
- An avid reader who enjoys cozying up with a book I can't put down
- An international foodie both in trying new foods and perfecting my culinary skills
- A spa aficionado and expert in spontaneous getaways and adventures
- An aspiring triathlete
- Passionate about human rights work and helping the underprivileged

This profile appeared in the February 2021 edition of I Am Barnes & Thornburg.

View the full publication.