Transactional Attorney Anthony Arnold Joins Barnes & Thornburg In San Diego

June 4, 2019 | San Diego

SAN DIEGO – Barnes & Thornburg has added Anthony Arnold as a partner in the firm’s Corporate Department in San Diego.

Arnold focuses his practice on corporate and finance, M&A, venture capital and private equity. He often oversees large multidisciplinary teams of employment, IP, executive compensation, tax, and environmental attorneys, accountants and bankers in connection with complex transactions and financings. He represents U.S. and foreign clients that operate in a variety of industries, including entertainment and sports, biotechnology, real estate and financial services.

In addition to his transactional work, Arnold regularly advises fund managers, company executives and boards of directors on corporate governance matters and compliance issues. He represents issuers and underwriters in various types of public and private offerings of equity and debt securities, including common stock, preferred stock, notes and warrants, and advises on disclosure and other securities and regulatory matters.

Earlier in his career, Arnold was an assistant vice president at Oaktree Capital Management, a publicly traded private equity fund. Most recently, Arnold was a shareholder at Stradling Yocca Carlson & Rauth P.C.

“Anthony has a strong domestic and global transactional practice that will dovetail nicely with our existing corporate and M&A capabilities in Southern California and across the country,” said Troy Zander, San Diego managing partner. “His in-house experience at a leading global alternative
