Christopher Bayh Joins Barnes & Thornburg LLP's Litigation Department

April 11, 2014 | Indianapolis

INDIANAPOLIS – Christopher Bayh has joined Barnes & Thornburg LLP's Indianapolis office as an associate in the firm's Litigation Department.

Bayh will focus his practice on commercial litigation, product liability defense and white collar defense. His experience includes litigation and investigations in the fields of construction, finance, mass tort and national security.

Prior to joining Barnes & Thornburg, Bayh was an associate at a law firm in Washington, D.C. He previously served as a law clerk to Judge David F. Hamilton of the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals, and as a research assistant to former Indiana Congressman Lee H. Hamilton at the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars.

After graduating from Indiana University in 2004 with a bachelor's degree, Bayh earned his law degree cum laude from Washington University in St. Louis in 2009.

Bayh is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia and Illinois, and before the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals and the District of Columbia District Court. His admission in Indiana is pending.

With more than 600 attorneys and other legal professionals, Barnes & Thornburg is one of the largest law firms in the country. The firm serves clients worldwide from its offices in Atlanta, Chicago, Delaware, Indiana, Los Angeles, Michigan, Minneapolis, Ohio and Washington, D.C.
