

NLRB Considers Pilot Program To Consolidate Regional Offices

February 27, 2012 | Labor And Employment

In an effort to improve efficiencies in its regional structure, the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) is considering a pilot program that would consolidate Regional Offices in St. Louis, Mo. and Kansas City, Kan. The program would also remove the sub-regional office in Peoria, Ill. from the jurisdiction of the St. Louis office and place it in the hands of the regional office in Indianapolis, Ind.

RELATED PRACTICE AREAS

Labor and Employment
Labor Relations