

The Value Of Selling Claims In Bankruptcy

DATE

February 6, 2013

Deb Thorne of the Chicago office will present at the National Associations of Credit Management's (NACM) Audio Teleconference on Feb. 6 discussing the value of selling claims in bankruptcy. Her presentation will also touch on methods to evaluate the offers to purchase a company's claim, as well as the mechanics of selling a claim and evaluating the sales documents that frequently contain pitfalls for credit departments.

More information on this teleconference can be viewed by clicking here.