Barnes & Thornburg Adds National Healthcare Finance Team

October 11, 2023 | Indianapolis

INDIANAPOLIS — Barnes & Thornburg announced today that healthcare and public finance partners M. Elizabeth Walker and Jerimi J. Ullom have joined the firm's Indianapolis office. Previously, Elizabeth and Jerimi worked together at a national healthcare-focused law firm, where they represented public and private clients in a myriad healthcare and finance matters for more than 15 years.

Elizabeth is a leading tax-exempt bond practitioner. Her practice focuses on debt financing for 501(c)(3) and governmental organizations, with particular experience in healthcare finance. She represents borrowers, issuers, underwriters and lenders across the United States and territories in tax-exempt and taxable financings. In addition to her transactional experience, Elizabeth advises her clients on ongoing tax, disclosure and obligated group compliance matters.

She is a member of the board of directors of the National Association of Bond Lawyers (NABL), a former editor of the Federal Taxation of Municipal Bonds Deskbook, and was the first chair of NABL's government relations committee. She routinely serves as a presenter and panelist at NABL conferences.

Jerimi is a practical and creative finance lawyer focused on achieving his clients' goals. Jerimi serves as bond and borrower's counsel for healthcare, governmental and other nonprofit clients, and underwriter's and lender's counsel in financing transactions across the country. In the public arena, Jerimi serves as bond counsel to state agencies, cities, towns, counties and other governmental units in connection with the financing of capital projects. He is a national leader in the deployment of
