2015 Oklahoma City National Memorial & Museum's Reflections Of Hope Award

March 6, 2015 | Indianapolis

Larry Mackey of the Indianapolis office was selected as a recipient of the 2015 Oklahoma City National Memorial & Museum's Reflections of Hope Award. The executive committee of the Oklahoma City National Memorial & Museum selected Larry because of his unforgettable role in bringing the perpetrators of the Oklahoma City bombing to justice. April marks two decades since the Oklahoma City bombing killed 168 people and changed thousands of lives. Larry will be honored with the award at the 20th Anniversary Ceremony on April 19 in Oklahoma City.
