

RELATED INDUSTRIES

Healthcare

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

Legal Ethics: Privilege And Ethical Considerations In The Era Of The Monaco Memo

American Health Law Association's (AHLA)
Institute on Medicare and Medicaid Payment Issues

DATE

March 21, 2024
11 a.m.-12 p.m. (Eastern)

LOCATION

Baltimore Marriott
Waterfront Hotel
700 Aliceanna St.
Baltimore, MD 21202

SPEAKERS

Anthony J.
Burba
Partner

Tony Burba will present on Legal Ethics: Privilege and Ethical Considerations in the Era of the Monaco Memo alongside Ted Lotchin, chief compliance officer of UNC Health, at the American Health Law Association's (AHLA) Institute on Medicare and Medicaid Payment Issues.

Tony's presentation will discuss the ethical responsibility and attorney-client privilege-related risks and opportunities for in-house and outside counsel and attorneys working as compliance officers in conducting internal investigations and reviewing and improving compliance programs.

Attendees can attend the session on either March 21 from 11 a.m.-12:00 p.m.

or March 22 from 10:45 to 11:45 a.m. Eastern.

The AHLA's Institute on Medicare and Medicaid Payment Issues is the country's premier legal education opportunity for federal healthcare payment programs, providing thorough guidance on legal, compliance and operational issues challenging healthcare providers today.