Of Counsel

Kenneth Suzan of the Minneapolis office, together with his co-host Rolf Claessen of Patentanwälte Freischem in Cologne, Germany, have completed and posted Episode 23 of intellectual property law podcast IP Fridays. The show is distributed at www.ipfridays.com, the iTunes Store, and Stitcher.com. This week's episode features a discussion with Peter Sloane, an attorney based in White Plains, New York, who secured a consent judgment against Patent and Trademark Agency LLC, a company notorious for sending deceptive trademark renewal notices in the guise of invoices to clients of law firms throughout the country. The episode also includes a discussion on filing trademark applications for song lyrics and an Ohio court's decision to dismiss a copyright infringement case involving restaurant recipe copying.
