

GOVERNMENT AND PUBLIC FINANCE

Making An Impact

The firm's state and federal Government Services and Finance team has earned a deep level of trust among clients by helping them better anticipate and respond to evolving economic and regulatory climates and various government agency policy changes while also working to help company and governmental entities with their wide-range of public finance needs.

Many businesses and government entities are faced with navigating the intricate tangle of law and regulation when transacting business or obtaining financing for public projects and public-private partnerships. Barnes & Thornburg attorneys and lobbyists represent and advocate the interests of businesses, government and trade associations at the federal, state and local levels. We advise on the full range of regulatory and administrative, lobbying and government finance matters by serving as diligent advisers and effectual problem solvers.

Our firm is committed to achieving each client's goals, rather than creating legal obstacles. Our ability to understand the workings of the government, in addition to frequent interactions with federal, state and local officials, is supported by our long history of creative solutions and clear, actionable paths to achieving the right end.

We work diligently with clients to conceive and draft legislation, spearhead testimony before Congressional and state legislative committees on critical issues, and advise on state and local economic development and redevelopment initiatives. In Washington, D.C., we focus on federal relations, lobbying, regulatory, political action committee formation, and administrative matters. We are also appreciated for representing government agencies at the state level — especially in Illinois, Indiana and Ohio — advising on procurement, municipal utilities, annexation, government reorganization, labor and employment, student discipline and

Why Barnes & Thornburg?

Finding new ways to help clients identify solutions and new business opportunities, across industries, is at our core. We are, at times, more than lawyers, we are advisers bringing new ideas to light. We understand what keeps you up at night and work collaboratively to find practical and creative solutions, at the heart of business.
