American College Of Trial Lawyers Fellow

October 9, 2015 | Indianapolis

John Maley of the Indianapolis office was inducted as a Fellow in the American College of Trial Lawyers at the annual meeting in Chicago. Fellowship in the College is extended by invitation only, and only after the College's confidential investigation and interviews with judges and opposing counsel in the nominee's trials; only thereafter does the nominee learn of the nomination and selection. John was inducted with 75 other lawyers from the United States and Canada, and was the sole inductee from Indiana.
