Southeast Michigan

We work with large multinational companies, mid-size entities and those that are just getting started, helping them protect their valuable intellectual property, life science innovations and other business assets.

With three offices in Michigan and others coast to coast, Barnes & Thornburg is known as an efficient and business-minded law firm dedicated to the communities in which we live and work. We are known for going above and beyond, delivering value and relentless client service, which distinguishes us from other firms.

Our firm's entrepreneurial spirit fits well with the Ann Arbor community. We are dedicated to our clients and support the communities in which we live and work in with volunteer endeavors.
