New York

Our attorneys in New York leverage a diverse set of backgrounds to engage a variety of clients, advising on the formation, operation and regulation of private investment funds, assisting investment advisers and other clients on innovative private and public transactions, and working with companies and individuals facing government investigations and complex litigation.

As a full-service law firm with offices across the country, we help businesses successfully launch, grow and thrive. Our clients benefit from the knowledge and experience cultivated by the professionals in this high-energy office and throughout the firm. We partner with our clients to realize their goals. Being a part of the vibrancy of New York and supported by more than 800 legal professionals across the country allows our team to provide value-added legal and business guidance, no matter the size of the challenge at hand.

We also share a commitment to the communities in which we live, volunteering time and providing philanthropic support to charities, nonprofits, arts organizations, and many worthy endeavors.
