Minneapolis

Attorneys in Barnes & Thornburg's Minneapolis office have provided legal services to businesses and individuals in the Twin Cities and surrounding area for nearly 30 years. From our office in the heart of downtown Minneapolis, the firm counsels clients in a wide spectrum of legal practice areas, including corporate litigation; commercial real estate; corporate law; employee and executive benefits; employment law; bankruptcy and creditors' rights; insurance recovery and counseling; intellectual property; family law; and private wealth services, among others. The office serves clients in a broad range of industries, including medical device, manufacturing, financial services, healthcare, retail and distribution.

A member of Twin Cities Diversity in Practice, our collegial environment has garnered recognition in the community. The Minneapolis office was lauded in the 2020 Top 150 Workplaces list in the Minnesota Star Tribune and in the 2020 Best Places to Work in Minneapolis in the medium companies' category by the Minneapolis/St. Paul Business Journal. The honor conforms to the high regard our employees have for their workplace. We've also been recognized by Minnesota Women Lawyers with a leadership award and by Minnesota Business magazine among the 100 best companies to work for, and our lawyers have been listed in Minnesota Super Lawyers.

Barnes & Thornburg, a national full-service AmLaw 100 firm, is known for its team approach to client service and its entrepreneurial spirit, which fits well with the dynamic Twin Cities business community. We work hard and play hard, and spend time supporting the communities in which we live and work with volunteer and pro bono efforts.
