

LOCATIONS

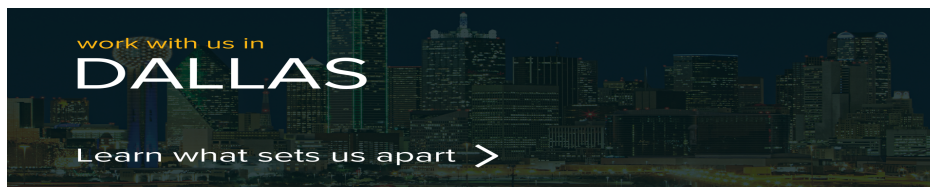

Dallas

The highly talented attorneys in the Dallas office have experience in complex litigation, antitrust, white collar criminal defense, labor and employment, corporate, finance, government and regulatory law, real estate, insurance recovery, M&A, healthcare, tax and intellectual property. Barnes & Thornburg knows Texas well, as many of our clients are headquartered in Dallas or have operations in the state.

Being a part of the dynamic Dallas business community fuels our civic pride. We are active in our local communities, the local bar, and in several business and philanthropic organizations.

Clients throughout Texas look to Barnes & Thornburg to deliver quality legal services at a greater value, often at rates below those offered by our competition and based on our entrepreneurial spirit and client attention that other firms may simply be unable to provide. The trial lawyers in our Dallas office are known for their skill and for actually trying cases. Being a national, full-service firm means that we are able to leverage talent from offices around the country and put together cost-effective teams.
